Phone Meeting with Diane Hougaboom

Subject : Phone Meeting with Diane Hougaboom

To : Lauren Wickman <lwickman@deltacountymi.org>

1. Horvath: Offered the Unlawful Imprisonment. Told her D would probably be eligible for Bootcamp, and said the judge would probably consider it. Made no promise to recommend. H said she'd run it by her, and it "sounded good."

2. [redacted] Will be a plea.

3. [redacted] Likely plea.

4. [redacted] Likely plea.

5. [redacted] Likely plea.

6. [redacted] H thinks her pleading is a good idea. However, D is concerned about her N/A issue and thinks "fighting" this case will help her. H said she'd talk with D.

7. [redacted] Will be a trial. H said she has filed the Alibi Defense notice. They have a photo with a 9:30 p.m. time stamp of D with family. Wife will then ty that she recalls that night because of some special event or significance, and she and the D went home together.

As we were discussing these cases, she said, her mind no longer has the "bandwidth" to discuss anymore cases or to go into further detail. She seemed very sincere about that comment.

Lauren -

I know we had contemplated a plea on Horvath but never worked out the details of what an agreement would be.

Her plea deadline is 12/17. We need to get something in the works. Please call me about this.

I have Sydney on an A/B charge. Diane has her on a felony. She is looking for a plea deal. Any options? Diane, anything here that would affect your case?

It looks like her time would be eaten up by her felony count so it should be easy to resolve. I understand there is a video too.

Diane, we are both on [redacted] in probate and that is [redacted]. I'm GAL and you represent mom. Any conflicts that you see?

Brandon
